Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome to Social Enterprise Associates' newsletter, Enterprise in Action.

LINKING CONSULTING PROJECTS TO ACTION ITEMS FOR EVERYONE:

Recent projects of Social Enterprise Associates include:

- Economic Development for Fort Apache in Arizona, on the White Mountain Apache Indian Tribal lands. Helping this historic monument be a driven for tourism and economic development. www.wmonline.com/attract/ftapache.htm.
- Women's Opportunities Resource Center (WORC, www.worc-pa.com). Retirement Income Solutions for Older Americans. More than 50% of Americans are at financial risk in their retirement. This product helps someone you know understand their retirement situation, and ensure they are making informed, valuable decisions.
- Intervale Center (www.intervale.org). This Burlington, Vermont non-profit is a leader in local food movement – to buy food produced locally and organically. Soc. Ent. Assoc helped them define their social enterprise strategy to serve as a cornerstone to operational decision-making.
- Haiti financial services for SOFIHDES. As part of a USAID project implemented by the consulting firm Chemonics, Drew Tulchin supported the people of the poorest country in the Americas by working with a finance company that works with SME (small and medium enterprises).
