Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome to Social Enterprise Associates' newsletter, Enterprise in Action.

CURRENT PROJECTS: Visit our website to learn more about:
- o 'SR' business plan competition assistance with entrants in the Global Social Venture Competition and as a judge for the William James Foundation.
- o New consulting gigs: international microfinance institutions, Afghanistan, U.S. investors, Native American communities, and bridging the gap between them all.
- o Drew Tulchin quoted in the Washington Post on U.S. microfinance.

RECENT RESEARCH: All available online (www.socialenterprise.net/resources.html)
- o To Serve Millions, not Hundreds. Powerpoint presentation originally developed for ECDC Enterprise Development Group (EDG) of a model for U.S. microfinance to address scale in making a meaningful impact towards asset development for low income people and immigrant populations.
- o Emerging Topics Paper Series #7: Strategies for Managers Working within Founder's Syndrome Organizations. This paper explores middle manager actions at social purpose institutions to address organizational challenges in leader-run organizations. Written by Jessica Shortall, Skoll Scholar, Saïd Business School, Oxford, U.K.
- o Primer on Faith Based Investing for Social Entrepreneurs. This brief introduces social entrepreneurs to community investing, faith based investors, and how they may be of value to social enterprises. By Drew Tulchin, Mukund Bhaskar & Glen Fernandes.
